

CURATIO:
AN APOSTOLATE
OF CATHOLIC
HEALTH CARE PROFESSIONALS

Join Us for Curatio's Lenten Half-Day Retreat

“The Privilege of Caring for Christ in the Sick.”

with Father Joseph Johnson

Saturday, April 13, 2019

7:30AM to 12:00PM
(Includes Breakfast & Lunch)

at the Little Sisters of the Poor

330 Exchange Street South

Saint Paul, Mn 55102

651.227.0336

Register at curatioapostolate.com

$40 for Healthcare Professionals

$20 for Students in Healthcare

Onsite registration is additional $7

Scholarships are available for those in need;

if you want to come and money is an issue

please just call us! Any questions please contact Christin at 612.875.2802

Fr. Joseph Johnson was born in Texas and studied History and Classics before beginning his seminary studies in Rome. He was ordained a priest in 1998 and later returned to Rome for higher studies in Moral Theology.

Fr. Joseph's parish assignments include: St. Olaf in downtown Minneapolis, St. Vincent de Paul serving the Hmong Catholic community, the Cathedral of St. Paul, and currently Holy Family in St. Louis Park.

Half-Day Retreat Schedule

7:30AM Check in/Registration

8:00AM Breakfast and Conversation

8:45-9:30AM “The Privilege of Caring
for Christ in the Sick”

9:30AM Adoration and
Stations in Chapel

10:30AM Mass celebrated by
Fr. Joseph Johnson

11:15AM Questions and discussion
with Fr. Joseph Johnson

12:00PM Lunch

Curatio ex Corde Christi; Healing from the Heart of Christ